About Me

I am a Creative Full Stack Developer, with 7+ years experience building software solutions, working with passion to make users life easier!

PHP and JS are my two mainstream weapons. My experience includes Wordpress, ReactJs, VueJs, Laravel, MySQL, NodeJs and some cool tools such as Git, WebPack, Gulp, Grunt...

I also have a large background with UI design... I'm able to perform great tasks and create pretty layouts using Photoshop, Illustrator, Figma, InVision...

I like to kill bugs while drinking a strong coffee!

Experience Summary

Software Developer

Burger Digital - June/2021 - Present

Working along a great team in a specialist web design and development company is a very exciting challenge. Developing and maintaining websites, portals and apps for the most vary types of business accross Australia is bringing me so much experience and joy every single day...

Freelancer full stack developer

July/2020 - Present

My adventure as a freelancer started when the pandemic hit. I developed websites for great companies and I still perfom some small tasks and maintenance on my spare time. I get involved on every step of the product development from meeting and concept sketch to design and development.

UI Designer & Software developer

Brightfox - Jan/2017 - June/2020

As the UI design team leader and Front-end developer I proudly worked with several great real estate developers to provide the best softwares to access their most important sales data... From websites, sales portal, crm to interactive applications for iPad, iPhone, Kiosk... Meeting the most varied needs to help sellers close their contracts.

Front-end developer

Margin Media - Sep/2016 - Dec/2016

On my first oportunity working in digital agency outside my home country I did my best to provide great solutions for the website projects I was responsible for... Also created some animated web advertisements for great companies using html5 and vanilla js.

Front-end developer

W5 Publicidade (Brazil) – Aug/2013 – Sep/2015

Responsible for co-leading the development department of the company, I proudly worked with some of the greatest companies in Brazil and also some clients from France and USA... As a creative developer I was always trying to build the best comunication bridge between the design and the development teams to fulfill our customer needs.
